

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The King's Academy Announces New Principal, Scott Meadows

SUNNYVALE, CA, April 13, 2015

Principal Scott Meadows

The School Board of The King's Academy has announced the appointment of Mr. Scott Meadows as the next principal, beginning June 1, 2015. From 2005 to 2014, Meadows served as the 7th-12th grade Principal (550 students) and interim Assistant Superintendent at Christian Unified Schools of San Diego.

Dr. John K. H. Mackay, Search Committee Chair and School Board member, remarked, "We prayed and the Lord answered! I think that Scott Meadows is an excellent choice as our next principal for The King's Academy. He has a wealth of experience and will continue to lead us in our efforts as we strive to be an outstanding Christian school that is Christ centered."

Meadows brings extensive experience in Christian education to The King's Academy. In addition to 9 years of leadership at Christian Unified Schools, he has been Principal of Grace Christian Academy (grades 6-12) and Head of School at Campbell County Christian Academy, both in Tennessee. Prior to that, Mr. Meadows founded Aletheia Christian Academy in Pensacola, Florida, where he grew the school from 15 to 230+ students during his 8 years of leadership. Additionally, he served as the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) Southern California District One representative from 2011 to the present. Meadows holds a B.S. in Education from Pensacola Christian College, a Masters in Education from Lincoln Memorial University, and is currently pursuing a Ph.D investigating the effects of technology on student cognition.

Scott Meadows path to TKA began a long time ago: "My journey in Christian education began in the 9th grade when my parents moved to a new town. I began attending a Christian school and, through the chapel services, came to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. The principal of the school made such a profound impact upon me that I knew I wanted to commit my life to full-time Christian service working with students in Christian schools. I went on to college to prepare as a Christian educator and have dedicated my life to fulfilling that call that I felt so many years ago."

Meadows will be the fourth principal in TKA's history, succeeding Bob Kellogg who has led The King's Academy for ten years. Mr. Meadows will be moving to the Bay Area with his wife, Julie, and two children who will attend The King's Academy. He also has two young adult children who attend colleges in southern California.

Press Contact:

Kriss Hayward, Public Relations Director
The King's Academy
562 N. Britton Avenue
Sunnyvale, CA 94085-3841
kriss.hayward@tka.org, P: (408) 481.9900 x4235