42nd Street is an energetic, all-singing, all-dancing musical about the 1930's Broadway scene. The story is about a young, Broadway-hopeful who fulfills every chorus girl's dream when she rises to stardom after taking over for an injured leading lady on opening night!

The King's Academy Drama Department plans to continue their tradition of excellence in their annual spring musical. 42nd Street is one of the most challenging musicals a high school can produce, but no other show provides so many opportunities for students to dance and sing their hearts out! With 10 production numbers, 80 high school students, and 367 costumes, this Broadway fairy tale is sure to wow and captivate the entire audience!

The King's Academy is a Christ-centered college preparatory middle and senior high school for students who have teachable hearts and coachable spirits. The school offers a loving, family environment where students are encouraged to grow in their relationship with Jesus, their family, teachers, and others. The King's Academy is accredited by both the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). The King's Academy is currently accepting applications for the 2010-2011 school year. For more information about The King's Academy, please visit the website at www.tka.org.
