In Freaky Friday, an overworked mother and her teenage daughter magically swap bodies, but they only have one day to put things right again. By spending a day in each other's shoes, Katherine and Ellie come to appreciate one another's struggles, learn self-acceptance, and realize the immeasurable love and mutual respect that bond a mother and daughter. Freaky Friday, a new musical based on the celebrated novel by Mary Rodgers and the hit Disney films, is a heartfelt, comedic, and unexpectedly emotional update on an American classic.

Director Abigail DeGraaf asks audience members to consider, "Who do you relate to most, Katherine or Ellie, the mother or the daughter? You will probably feel their frustration more easily. Can you find how to relate to the other? Without having to swap bodies — imagine with us what it's like to walk a mile in someone else's shoes."

The King's Academy, an independent, college preparatory school for grades 6-12, is a Christ-centered school that inspires academic excellence, servant leadership, and enduring relationships.
