

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TKA's Curtains Theatre Production Receives 4 Nominations for Rita Moreno High School Musical Honor Awards

SUNNYVALE, Calif, April 29 2019 — TKA Theatre's high school musical, Curtains, is nominated for the Rita Moreno California High School Musical Honor Awards. Sponsored by Children's Musical Theater San Jose and Broadway San Jose, a Nederlander Presentation, this regional awards competition recognizes outstanding achievement in high school musical theatre north of Santa Barbara. High school productions were considered for nomination in the following categories: Best Overall Production, Outstanding Actor, Outstanding Actress, Outstanding Supporting Actor and Outstanding Supporting Actress. Learn more about the awards here.

The King's Academy was nominated in four out of the five categories, including:

- Best Overall Production
- Leading Actor: Chris Rubingh
- Supporting Actor: Andy Arledge
- Supporting Actress: Alyssa Hall

2019 Nomination List

The winning Outstanding Leading Actor and Actress will travel to the National High School Musical Theatre Awards (NHSMTA) — also known as the Jimmy™ Awards — in New York City, where they'll perform on a Broadway stage before industry experts and compete for scholarship opportunities to NYU's prestigious Tisch School of the Arts.

"Congratulations to the entire company of Curtains! I know we are all so grateful to have our production be celebrated throughout the state. And it's an honor to be among the top high school programs in the area. A job well done!" - Lauren Leong
