The film is 50 minutes long and includes the stories of 8 inspirational women, many of them in STEM. The Empowerment Project has universal themes that are appropriate for adults and teens and all genders. A female executive from Microsoft will be introducing the film and facilitating discussion afterward.

The Empowerment Project is a movement with a powerful documentary film at its core. This global campaign celebrates our true role models and challenges the next generation of leaders to ask themselves: WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU WEREN’T AFRAID TO FAIL?

Theatrical On Demand made possible by IndieFlix. Visit empowermentproject.com for more info.